COUNTY SLEUTHS HUNT THE TIGER AT MURRAY.

That some of the old sports are "bucking the tiger" in quiet corners of Murray is believed by the county authorities, and three county officers spent a few hours in a still hunt for the game in the suburban town yesterday.

There are persistent rumors that a few quiet games are being conducted in well guarded places by a few of the bolder sports. Only those who can be trusted and known by the man behind the game can gaib access to the sanctum, and Deputy Moss has been unable to verify his belief, but became sufficiently convinced that all was not right, to request Chief Deputy Eldredge, who is acting sheriff in the absence of Sheriff Naylor, to come down

Apostle Cannon's Condition Perplexes His Physician.

Monterey, Cal., April 11.—George Q. Cannon slept several hours today, and is resting easy tonight. Dr. Clift stated tonight that Mr. Cannon's condition was truly perplexing, although most critical. In view of the extreme age of the patient his death could be hourly expected, but he did not care to gay that his condition was absolutely hopeless.

Apostle Cannon valida slightly a state of the patient has severe sinking spells, during which there is an almost entire cessation of heart action, and it is feared that he will pass away when in that condition.

Angus J. Cannon, son of the apostle, yesterday received the following mes-

Apostle Cannon rallied slightly today and was perfectly conscious when he awoke. Unless some sudden change

Harriman Syndicate Stops Burlington's Salt Lake Extension.

Chicago, April 11.—The Burlington nas recalled its corps of surveyors which have been selecting a route from Guernsey, Wyo., to Salt Lake Eigy.

"This action," says the Evening Post today, "is taken as showing that the managing authorities of the Burlington building to Salt Lake based all its hopes on the prospect of the Burlington building to Salt Lake to form a connection. Of late the supposition has been that J. Hill, who works closely with Harriman, was gradually securing control of the Burlington, and this seems more likely to do so."

The above dispatch, if contents are true, is of deep significance to Salt Lake. It means in all probability that the Burlington will not enter Salt Lake. It means in all probability that the Burlington will not enter Salt Lake. Since Clark's opponents, the Harriman syndicate, have secured control of every Attorney Ryckman Files Divorce Suit in Wyoming.

The papers summoning her to appear cases there, and filed the suit for dinterest court of Sheridan county, where he was a few days ago. The summons and complaint were immediately forwarded here and placed in the hands of a deput sheriff. Mrs. Ryckman apparently had no inkling of the filing of the suit until the deputy found her at her home and served the summons.

The act of desertion, have been served upon Mrs. J. H. Ryckman, the suit until the deputy found her at her home and served the summons.

After listening to the reading of the complaint, Mrs. Ryckman, it is said, broke down completely and made some serious charges against her husband. It is said, though, that she intends to contest the divorce proceedings, and that Mrs. Ryckman, when she left Wyoming and came here with her hus-band, sold her place there. According to the articles of the suit, Ryckman claims that his legal residence is still in Wyoming, although he has been fiving in this city for about a year and a hait with his wife and two colldren, aged 10 and 13, respectively.

Ryckman has, for a short while past, been in Wyoming looking after some
